STARS OF THE WEEK

Praa Sands – Eveie for great listening and enthusiasm

Kynance – Jamie for his first independent piece of work

Poldhu – Sam for really striving to do his best in all subjects

SCHOOL DINNERS

We will have a special 'World Book Day' lunch next Thursday (1st March). Please check the notice on the kitchen door as the normal menu will not be available.

The following Monday, 5th March (St Pirans Day), will be having Cornish Pasties for lunch (meat or veg).

HELSINKI REPORT

Staff had a wonderful learning experience in Finland over the half term break. Please see the report on the school website under News. There will be a Parent/Governor meeting on Tuesday 13th March @ 9.00 am where you will have the opportunity to discuss anything contained in the report.

ART CLUB

Miss Lane would like flat polystyrene such as pizza bases please, to explore different textures in Art Club.

AFTER SCHOOL CLUBS

Club forms are attached. Please complete and return as soon as possible. There will be no SATS club next week

COMPUTER GAMES

It has come to our attention that some children are accessing video/computer games that are not appropriate for their age, the main one being '5 Nights at Freddy's'. Accessing games that are not age appropriate will impact their emotional and social development. If you are concerned that your child/ren are playing these sorts of games please visit www.commonssensemedia.org where you can find information on the games as well as parental reviews.
