MESSAGE FROM MISS BLACKBURN

Good afternoon all,

Thank you to those of you who are helping out at school. It is lovely to see people in school listening to readers or helping to rearrange furniture etc. We can achieve much more if we do it together. We don't just take parents as volunteers, so if your child's granny or grandad has a spare afternoon and would like to fill it in the company of our lovely children then they are very welcome. Just let the office know. A huge thank you to the art and drama club volunteers too, it was lovely watching how enthused the children were in art club on Monday. It was great to see some of you at the Phonics meeting with Mrs Reeves too, so thank you for attending

Our children have been involved with lots of learning and activities around Anti-Bullying this week. Class one learned about Wanda and the hundred dresses and designed their own dresses as a reminder to be kind and to tell an adult if someone is mean. They were amazing at learning the huge words, "Repetitive and Intentional" and we have made a display in the main building.

On another note, we are looking for natural resources so if you could help with logs; sliced logs for learning trays and displays/trunks for outdoor seating, we would really appreciate it. Also, if you know of anyone who has a large cable reel that isn't any use to them, please could we have it for an outdoor table.

Have a lovely weekend!

Miss Paula Blackburn

CLASS UPDATE

Praa Sands Class

This half term, in Praa Sands, we have been extremely busy! In English, we have been writing non-chronological reports about a significant person. In Maths, we have been learning about shape and positional language, as you can see in our maze drawing and beebot programming! We also started our topic 'Choices influence equality', inquiring into significant people who helped to promote equality in different ways.

As well as this, we have had the pleasure of inviting Robin into Praa Sands, who has fitted in brilliantly with our class.

We have started practicing our Christmas production and thoroughly enjoyed spending today in our pyjamas!
